

Dear Parents and Carers

As part of your family's eligibility to claim means tested Free School Meals your child is also eligible for The Holiday Activity and Food Programme.

This is a programme funded by The Department for Education to provide FREE access to activities for eligible children over the three main school holidays – Spring, Summer and Winter. (Easter, Summer and Christmas)

We offer a variety of sessions all over Suffolk, with activities including sports, craft, swimming, outdoor cooking and many more.

Each season brings new and exciting things for your children to do, along with the returning favourites.

Eligible Children will be registered as receiving benefit related Free School Meals and be between 5 and 16.

To book any of these activities please register your child on our booking system. Eequ then browse the sessions listed and book your child on. Please scan the QR code below for a direct link or enter the web address directly into your internet browser.
